AFFIDAVIT

Sidney Mendel, Doctor of Laws, being first duly sworn deposes and says that, until the end of 1938, he was a member of the Berlin bar and admitted as attorney-at-law to the German courts. His legal residence is now 85-20 Elmhurst Avenue, Elmhurst, L.I., State of New York.

In his capacity as attorney he handled numerous concentration camps cases in the years 1933 to 1938. He remembers distinctly that, in the years of 1934 and 1935, he approached in several cases Frick's Reichs Ministery of the Interior as the agency superior to the Gestapo for the release of concentration camp inmates. Frick's Ministery had special control functions over concentration camps.

The deponent further states that he informed the Ministery about illegal arrests, beatings, torture and mistreatment of inmates. But the Ministery declined the release and upheld the decisions of the Gestapo.

The deponent is able and willing to testify to these facts as a witness under oath.
